- (a) to reproduce Repertoire Works on servers within the Server Territory for the purpose of transmitting the same to Users (for the User's own private and non-commercial use) by means of the Licensed Services; and
- (b) where the Licensed Services expressly authorise the temporary or permanent reproduction of Repertoire Works on Users' Data Storage Devices, to cause such copies to be made in the Territory for the User's own private and non-commercial use.

2.2 Subject to and conditional upon compliance with the terms and conditions contained herein and in particular subject to the exclusions and restrictions set out in clauses 3 and 4, IMRO grants the Licensee a non-exclusive licence, during the Term, to make available to the public (as that term is defined in section 40 (1) (a) (but not for the avoidance of doubt Section 40 (1) (b) – (g) inclusive of the Act) and to authorise the making available to the public of Repertoire Works within the Territory solely as part of and for the purposes of the provision of the Licensed Services.

- 2.3 The above licences shall apply where Repertoire Works are used in audio-only material and, subject to clause 3.2, Audio Visual Material.

3. Exceptions and Limitations

- 3.1 The licences granted under clause 2 of this Agreement are valid only insofar as:

- (a) the Licensed Services are Music Services; and
- (b) the Licensee is the Music Service Provider in relation to the Licensed Services.
- (c) the Gross Revenue from the Licensed Services does not exceed €7,000 (excluding VAT) per annum. The Licensee shall notify the Licensors if the Gross Revenue from the Licensed Services exceeds the sum of €7,000 (excluding VAT) per annum. In such a case, the Licensee shall apply for a Joint Online Licence, which if granted, shall replace this Agreement.

- 3.2 The incorporation of Commercial Works into Audio-Visual Material is only licensed under this Agreement where the Audio-Visual Material consists of:

- (a) a music videogram; or
- (b) a live concert performance or a film of a live concert performance by the artist performing that particular Commercial Work; or
- (c) subject to clause 4.3, such Commercial Works being combined with photographs or other images relating to the artist performing the Commercial Work or the composer of the Commercial Work; or
- (d) subject to clause 4.3, an interview with an artist, composer, producer or other person involved in the creation, performance or production of music where the Commercial Work(s) used are associated with the interviewee(s).

For the avoidance of doubt, such Audio-Visual Material as is licensed under 3.2(a) to (d) above is only licensed insofar as it is reproduced or made available to the public via the Licensed Services.

- 3.3 For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement does not grant any "synchronisation licence" (to the extent that such a licence may be required by the Licensee) covering the initial fixation of Repertoire Works in combination with visual images to create and produce Audio-Visual Material.

- 3.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the licences granted under clause 2 of this Agreement shall not authorise the manufacture or distribution of physical products containing Repertoire Works, such as (without limitation) the ordering of compact discs (or any other type of physical media) via a Music Service, but which are distributed by mail.

- 3.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the licences granted under clause 2 of this Agreement shall not extend to the performing, showing or playing a copy in public, broadcasting a copy, including a copy in a cable programme service, issuing copies of or renting or lending (as those terms is used in the Act) of Repertoire Works, whether as part of the Licensed Services or otherwise.

- 3.6 The licence granted under clause 2.1 of this Agreement shall not permit the use of Repertoire Work(s) with any advertising or sponsorship where:

- (a) such Repertoire Work(s) are incorporated into such advertising or sponsorship; or
- (b) such Repertoire Work(s) are otherwise presented in such a way that a reasonable person might associate the Repertoire Work(s) with the advertising or sponsorship.

- 3.7 For the avoidance of doubt (and without prejudice to the generality of clause 3.6), the licences granted under these terms and conditions shall not apply to any Repertoire Work(s) made available for the purpose of (whether in whole or in part):

- (a) directly or indirectly encouraging the User to purchase or obtain goods or services of whatsoever nature (other than music via the Licensed Service); or
- (b) promoting the branding of the Licensee, any affiliate of the Licensee or any third party; in such a manner that:
 - (i) one or more particular Repertoire Works, composers or writers are associated with such promotion; or
 - (ii) a reasonable person might assume that there was an association between particular Repertoire Works, composers or writers and such promotion;

- 3.8 The licence granted under clause 2.1 shall not apply to graphic copies (meaning, without limitation, copies of lyrics, notation or scores) of Repertoire Works. For the avoidance of doubt, the licences granted under these terms and conditions shall not apply to any "karaoke" service within a Music Service.

- 3.9 The licence granted under clause 2.2 shall only apply to a Repertoire Work made available to the public as part of a Licensed Service where the Licensee has the benefit of a valid licence for or a right to make a reproduction of that particular Repertoire Work and for that particular form of exploitation via the Licensed Service either pursuant to these terms and conditions or otherwise. By way of example only, the licence granted by MCPSI under clause 2.1 does not cover the copying of Repertoire Works in an advertisement (see clause 3.5 above). However, clause 3.6 does not apply to the licence granted by IMRO under clause 2.2. Therefore, pursuant to this clause 3.9, the licence granted by IMRO under clause 2.2 would not apply (in the context of this example) unless the Licensee has the benefit of a right to copy the Repertoire Work for use in that advertisement (and on the Licensed Service(s)).

3.10 The licences granted under clause 2 of this Agreement shall not apply to any Repertoire Works reproduced or made available to the public within a Podcast unless:

(a) each programme comprising each Podcast contains both speech and music with the speech interspersed throughout the programme;

(b) such Podcast is provided only in the form of a programme in its entirety and not in the form of individual tracks or portions of such a programme;

(c) there can be no guide providing details of the time at which particular tracks appear; and

(d) no flags or other markers are inserted within such Podcast which may directly indicate or which may be used to indirectly infer the start and end point of tracks or segments of tracks.

3.11 The licences granted under clause 2 of this Agreement shall not apply to any Repertoire Works reproduced or made available to the public within a Podcast if:

(a) there is any Audio-Visual Material incorporated into the Podcast (unless Licensors provides their prior written approval in relation to such Audio-Visual Material); or

(b) the Podcast includes more than 2 Repertoire Works from a particular album or more than 2 Repertoire Works performed by a particular artist or written by a particular composer without prior written approval of the Licensors; or

(c) more than 50% of the Repertoire Works included within such Podcast are written by the same composer or writing partnership or are performed by the same artist without prior written approval of the Licensors unless the relevant Member has expressly consented thereto.

3.12 For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement grants no licence whatsoever in relation to Repertoire Works which are made available by the Licensee outside of the Licensed Service. However, such other exploitation of Repertoire Works may fall within the scope of other licensing schemes operated by the Licensors, details of which shall be made available to the Licensee on request.

Further Restrictions

4.1 The licences granted under this Agreement do not cover any Repertoire Works which are dramatico-musical works unless otherwise agreed by the Licensors.

4.2 The licences granted under this Agreement shall not extend to or permit any adaptation of any Repertoire Work to be copied or made available to the public as part of a Licensed Service unless the relevant Member has consented to such adaptation. By way of example only, this applies to:

(a) any sampling (meaning the taking of part of the music and/or lyrics of a Repertoire Work and incorporating such part into another Musical Work) or the making available to the public or reproduction in the form of a sample of such part of a Repertoire Work; or

(b) using with music lyrics other than those written to be used with the music or authorised for use with the music; or

(c) using with lyrics music other than that written to be used with the lyrics or authorised for use with the lyrics.

However, subject always to clause 4.7 and provided that such alterations do not amount to an adaptation of a Repertoire Work and do not contravene clause 4.3 then this Agreement shall apply in relation to Repertoire Works that have been modified (including music and/or lyrics) for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of the relevant recording.

4.3 The licences granted under this Agreement shall not extend to:

(a) the reproduction or making available to the public of any Commercial Work or part thereof in the form of a parody or burlesque of any Commercial Work or of any composer or writer of any Commercial Work or any band or other group of artists which includes any composer or writer of any Commercial Work; or

(b) the use of any Commercial Work in any context which the Licensee ought reasonably to consider as being likely to be insulting or detrimental to the composer featured on the commercially released sound recording of the music or the relevant Member or associated society member.

4.4 All rights not specifically granted under this Agreement are hereby reserved.

4.5 This Agreement only covers Repertoire Works. It does not extend to other rights or interests, including (by way of example only), rights in sound recordings, films, dramatic works, performers' rights or rights in performances. The Licensee is required to obtain the appropriate waivers, consents and/or licences from the person(s) owning or controlling rights in relation to sound recordings containing Repertoire Works or performers of that Repertoire Work.

4.6 Any additional limitations in relation to the Associated Societies' rights to grant the licences set out in clause 2 of this Agreement which have been notified to the Licensors shall be notified to the Licensee in writing (which may include by email) and shall be binding no less than 10 days following such notice. Where any restriction of a material nature is added, the Licensee shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the Licensors.

4.7 It is the responsibility of the Licensee to obtain all necessary licences in relation to any Musical Work which is not, or to the extent that it is not, a Repertoire Work, and no licence is granted under this Agreement in relation thereto.

4.8 Nothing in this Agreement affects the moral rights of authors of Repertoire Works whether subsisting in Ireland or any other territory.

6. Supply of Information

- 6.1 In relation to any and all Repertoire Works reproduced and made available to the public under this Agreement via all Licensed Services, the Licensee will deliver a fully and accurately completed Music Usage Declaration to the Licensors or to the Licensors' duly authorised agent (details of which will be provided to the Licensee) within 14 days of the end of each Quarter.
- 6.2 The Licensee must also supply the Licensors with any further information or documentation in its possession, power, custody or control (and use its reasonable endeavours to supply the Licensors with any further information or documentation not in its possession, power, custody or control) reasonably requested by the Licensors at any time, in order to enable the Licensors to verify the Repertoire Work(s) which have been reproduced or made available to the public via all Licensed Services.

- 6.3 Where any or all of the Licensed Services are accessible by Users only on payment of subscription or other similar payment (or access is otherwise limited or controlled in some way), the Licensee shall, upon request of the Licensors, use reasonable endeavours to ensure that such Licensed Services are at all times accessible by the Licensors free of charge for the purposes of the Licensors verifying that the Licensee is acting in accordance with this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Licensee shall not be required to provide free access to Downloads under a Permanent Download Service or to provide free access to a mobile phone network or internet access.
- 6.4 The email addresses for delivery of the Music Usage Declaration referred to in clauses 6.1 are
- onlinelicensing@imro.ie onlinelicensing@mcps.ie
- 6.5 Without prejudice to any right in law that the Licensors may have to obtain such information, the Licensee shall not be obliged to provide to the Licensors any information which identifies Users or which otherwise constitutes "personal data" as defined in the Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2003. For the avoidance of doubt, the Licensee must still provide all required Music Usage Information (or other information to be provided under this Agreement), but is entitled to remove any element of it which reveals the identity of Users or otherwise causes it to include or constitute "personal data".

7. Credits and Notices

- 7.1 The Licensee shall include on each of the Licensed Services:
- (a) the logos of IMRO and MCPSI; and
- (b) details of the following websites and, where practical, hypertext links to it:
- www.imro.ie and
www.mcps.ie

Approval of the Licensors shall be deemed to be given to the positioning of the above credits and notices within the terms and conditions of the Licensed Service(s) where it is not reasonably practical to position such information elsewhere.

8. Auditing

- 8.1 The Licensee shall keep and make available for inspection upon reasonable notice (and shall procure that each relevant party keeps and makes available for inspection upon reasonable notice), both during and for twelve months after termination of this Agreement, proper, detailed books and records relating to (a) use of all Musical Works and (b) any income or other consideration received by or on behalf of the Licensee in relation to or arising from the Licensed Services, together with any supporting documentation relating thereto covering the period up to six years prior to the date of notification of audit.

- 8.2 For the purposes of this clause 8, the Licensee shall allow upon reasonable notice (and shall procure that each relevant party shall allow) access to its premises to inspect relevant accounting records, but not more than once per annum. The duly authorised representatives (who shall be external qualified accountants or auditors unless otherwise agreed between the parties) of the Licensors shall have such access to the Licensee's premises and shall be entitled to inspect, make extracts and take copies of any of the information and/or documentation available and to carry out such work as is, in their reasonable opinion, considered necessary to verify compliance with this Agreement.
- 8.3 If tests under any audit and verification process indicate under-payment of the correct Royalty Fee during the period under audit, then, without prejudice to the Licensors' other rights under this Agreement, the Licensee shall pay the amount of the underpayment plus interest based on the period from which the correct fee should have been paid to the Licensors to the date when it was actually paid (at the rates set out in clause 5.11).
- 8.4 If any audit and verification process discloses (a) under-payment of more than 7.5% of the correct Royalty Fee during the period under audit and/or (b) failures to report correctly (so as to affect a distribution by the Licensors to their Members) amounting to at least 7.5% of the music usage during the period under audit, then, without prejudice to the Licensors' other rights under this Agreement, the Licensee shall pay, in addition to the payment referred to in clause 8.3, the Licensors' reasonable costs of such audit and verification within 28 days of receipt of the Licensors' VAT invoice therefor.
- 8.5 The Licensors shall not (and shall procure that their representatives shall not), without the Licensee's written consent, disclose to any third party any confidential information of the Licensee (so long as it remains confidential) received in the course of an audit carried out under this clause 8, save that such confidential information may be disclosed to the Licensors' directors, board sub-committee members officers, employees and professional advisors (solely where such persons are under a duty of confidentiality in relation to information so received and the Licensors shall be liable to the Licensee in respect of any breach of such confidentiality obligation) solely for purposes connected with this Agreement.
- 8.6 For the avoidance of doubt, books, records and accounting records as referred to in clauses 8.1 and 8.2 above shall include data, information and records held on computers.

9. Security and Encryption

Unless agreed otherwise, the Licensee will utilise or require the utilisation of an industry security standard which is developed and is available for use in the protection of Repertoire Works. Until such time, the Licensee must use its reasonable endeavours to prevent unauthorised copying and/or the unauthorised issuing of copies of Repertoire Works by whatever technical means are practicable. Upon request the Licensee will inform the Licensors concerning its progress in relation to fulfilling this obligation.

10. Termination and Expiry

- 10.1 This Agreement shall expire on 31 December 2022 unless terminated earlier by written agreement or in accordance with the terms of this clause 10.
- 10.2 This Agreement may be terminated by either party by the terminating party giving the other party not less than three calendar months notice in writing.
- 10.3 Each party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by notice forthwith where the other party:
- (a) commits a material breach of this Agreement which is capable of remedy and fails to remedy such breach within 14 clear days after receipt of notice of such breach; or
 - (b) commits a material breach of this Agreement which is not capable of remedy; or
 - (c) the other goes into receivership or any resolution is passed for its winding-up, examinership or liquidation (other than for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation) or is otherwise unable to pay its debts, and, for the avoidance of doubt, any breach which consists of a failure by either party to perform an obligation under this Agreement within any period required or by any date specified under this Agreement shall be deemed to be capable of remedy if such obligation is performed by such party within the 14 day cure period specified in clause 10.3(a) above.

11. No Assignment

The licences granted under this Agreement are personal to the Licensee and the Licensee may not assign, sub-license or otherwise transfer any or all of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the written agreement of both MCPSI and IMRO.

12. Miscellaneous

- 12.1 No delay or omission in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof or of any other right or remedy and no single or partial exercise thereof shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other rights or remedies. No waiver shall be binding or effectual for any purpose unless expressed in writing and signed by the party giving it and any such waiver shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose given.
- 12.2 This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties in relation to the subject matter hereof and each of the parties hereto acknowledges that it has not entered into this Agreement in reliance on any representation or term not contained in this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be modified or varied except by a written instrument signed by the parties hereto.
- 12.3 The headings to the clauses in this Agreement are included for ease of reference only and are not part of this Agreement and are not to be taken into account in its construction.
- 12.4 The parties shall (and shall procure that any other necessary party within its control shall) execute all such documents and do all such acts and things as may be reasonably be required on or subsequent to completion of this Agreement for securing each of the obligations of the respective parties under this Agreement.
- 12.5 If this Agreement creates any rights which would in the absence of this provision be enforceable by any person not a party to this Agreement, such rights shall not be enforceable.
- 12.6 This Agreement shall be construed according to the laws of Ireland and the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the Irish Courts.
